

Module Name Literature Seminar
Type of Module Specialization Module				Module Code SM-LITSEM
Identification Number MN-CS-LITSEM	Workload 180 h	Credit Points 6 CP	Term 3 rd semester	Offered Every Every semester	Start Every semester	Duration 1 semester
1	Course Types a) Seminar b) Presentation		Contact Time 30 h	Private Study 75 h 75 h		Planned Group Size 25 students
2	Module Objectives and Skills to be Acquired <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Methods of literature research</li> <li>• Presentation of scientific results</li> <li>• Preparing for the master thesis</li> <li>• Scientific writing</li> <li>• Argumentation</li> <li>• Teaching and conveyance competence</li> </ul>
3	Module Content Students receive a topic from their area of specialization. In a seminar talk the students present the recent state of research. The necessary literature research is conducted independently by the student. The seminar content is also elaborated as a written report.
4	Teaching Methods Seminar and presentation with compulsory attendance
5	Prerequisites (for the Module) Having passed the compulsory modules Simulation and Modelling 1 and 2 and achieved at least 12 CP in the chosen area of specialization.
6	Type of Examination Oral presentation
7	Credits Awarded Successful participation in the seminar including a presentation by the student which is graded 4 or better.
8	Compatibility with other Curricula None
9	Proportion of Final Grade 6/114
10	Module Coordinator The chairperson of the examination board.

11

Further Information

Literature: Depends on topic.